SEC. 13. [§ 4816, Rem.-Bal.] The names of candidates for each office upon the ballot and under the heading designating each official position upon the ballots to be used in voting, shall be first arranged in the order in which their declarations of candidacy shall have been filed. In printing each set of ballots for the several counties, the positions of the names of candidates shall be changed in each office division as many times as there are candidates in the office division in which there are the most names. As nearly as possible an equal number of ballots shall be printed after each change. In making the changes of position, the printer shall take the line of type at the head of each office division and place it at the bottom of the division, and shove up the column so that the name that before was second shall be first, after the change. After the ballots have been gathered as above provided they shall be numbered consecutively, said numbering to be perforated and torn off by the election officers on the voting of the ballot.
